The 2017 vintages of Assobio White and Rose, from Quinta dos Murças, have arrived on the market. These two wines, come from plots at higher altitudes and with unique characteristics, present a fresh, versatile and gastronomic profile.

Assobio White 2017, produced from Verdelho, Gouveio, Viosinho, Rabigato and Códaga do Larinho grapes, features a citric and tropical aroma. According to the Quinta dos Murças winemaker, José Luis Moreira da Silva, “the 2017 vintage offers a riper fruit aroma and more texture on the palate, resulting from an extremely hot and dry year, but maintaining the freshness that is typical of Assobio wines”.

Regarding Assobio Rose 2017, “the extremely hot and dry year intensified this wine’s fruitiness”. Produced using the Touriga Nacional, Tinta Roriz, Rufete and Tinto Cão varieties, this rose’s aromas are dominated by fresh red berries. Very fresh and delicate, with a balanced and persistent finish.

The Assobio range is part of the Quinta dos Murças wine portfolio, which is comprised of Minas, Reserva, Margem, VV47, Porto Tawny 10 years, Porto Vintage and organic extra virgin olive oil.

About Esporão's Quinta dos Murças

Dating back to 1714, Quinta dos Murças is located in northern Portugal, in the Cima-Corgo sub-region of the Douro. The Douro, established in 1756, is the oldest DOC in the world. The region is characterized by its dry, hot climate and steep schist slopes carved out by the Douro River and its tributaries.

The Quinta dos Murças estate is situated on the right bank of the Douro River, between the towns of Régua and Pinhão, nearly two hours drive east of Porto.

Stretching over half a mile along the riverfront, mainly with southern exposure, Quinta dos Murças encompasses a total of 383 acres, of which 118 acres are vineyards with indigenous grape varieties. In 1947, the estate became a pioneer with the first vertical vineyard planted in the Douro region.

Quinta dos Murças is a unique estate characterized by its 8 diverse terroirs, which are distinguished by different altitudes, exposures, variations of schist soils and vertical vineyards. In addition to the vineyards, the olive, orange and almond trees and the surrounding forest support biodiversity and promote the balance of the local ecosystem.

The region's extreme climate and terrain, the agricultural practices respecting nature and the different winemaking processes emphasize the true character of the fruit, resulting in concentrated, elegant and fresh terroir-driven wines.

Quinta dos Murças produces wines, such as Assobio DOC Douro and the Quinta dos Murças range - Quinta dos Murças Minas, Quinta dos Murças Margem, Quinta dos Murças VV47, Quinta dos Murças Reserva, Quinta dos Murças Porto Tawny 10 anos, Quinta dos Murças Porto Vintage 2011 and Quinta dos Murças extra-virgin olive oil.

About Esporão:

Founded in 1973 by José Roquette and Joaquim Bandeira, Esporão's is one of the most important wine companies in Portugal. It is a key factor in making the Alentejo an important name in both national and international markets, Esporão is also an ambassador of Portuguese culture, operating in a sustainable way, while building close ties with customers and consumers the world over. Esporão is based in the Alentejo region, where it produces iconic wines, such as Esporão Reserva and Monte Velho, as well as extra-virgin olive oils. Herdade do Esporão also boasts an excellent wine tourism project on the same site as the wineries. The company's project now also extends to Quinta dos Murças, an estate in the Douro region that produces terroir wines.

Esporão sells its products in a range of shops and restaurants in over 50 countries in the world. The company's holistic approach in adapting a wide range of innovative sustainable practices led to the attribution of the coveted and prestigious "Sustainability of the Year Award" at the "The Drinks Business Green Awards 2013". In 2014, Esporão won an award at the "European Business Awards for the Environment" in the "Products and Services" category.
